GRADIVA® AWARDS

2014 GRADIVA® AWARD

Presented by the World Organization and Public Education Corporation of
The National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis

RULES: We invite submissions from members and non-members for the best published, produced, or publicly exhibited works that promote psychoanalysis or psychotherapy. All entries must have been produced between January 1, 2025 and April 30, 2026, and must have a psychoanalytic or mental health theme.

The deadline for submissions is Friday, July 31 2026 (Midnight, EST)

Art: Art submissions must be either a series that has been exhibited or an exhibit as a whole. Submissions will only be accepted in a JPEG or PDF format. Please also include a weblink to the exhibition.

Articles: Papers must be submitted as hard copies to each of the judges. The NAAP office will accept a PDF of the publication.

Books may be submitted in hardcover or paperback format.

Digital Media/Documentaries/Movies: All entries in these categories must provide a weblink and password (if required). Newsletters will not be accepted.

Plays: send a script, and/or performance date(s) and a weblink to the performance.

Student papers should be submitted as an MS Word or PDF file. Please note, student papers must be of journal article length; we cannot accept dissertations or final presentations.

The Gradiva Award judges are selected from qualified applicants/volunteers from the various schools of thought represented by NAAP. Nominees will be announced at the end of November. The winners will be announced at the end of December. The judges' decisions are final and the committee reserves the right not to bestow an award in any given category.

To nominate: Please complete the 2026 Gradiva submission form via NAAP's website!

In addition, please mail one physical copy of your submission to each of the following addresses listed below:
